

Geography

Whatever your age, these recommended reads will complement your study of History and help you to enjoy wider elements of our units. Ask your History teacher what they'd recommend for you!

Key Stage 3

Title	What can I expect from this text?	Front Cover
A Life on Our Planet	A description of how our Earth has changed over time and the impacts that humans have had upon it. A consideration of what changes we might expect into the future.
Horrible Geography	A series of 10 books which cover different aspects of our planet, such as rainforests, rivers, volcanoes, oceans, earthquakes, deserts and coasts. These are all aspects we will study in Geography.

The OS puzzle Book	Puzzles and games using OS maps over time.
Our World in Pictures Countries, Cultures, People and Places	An exploration of the world looking at physical and human features that make up our planet.

Key Stage 4

Title	What can I expect from this text?	Front Cover
Letters to the Earth	This book explores the connections between humans and the earth, considering the impact we are having over time.

The Making of the British Landscape

This book explores the ways the British landscape has been changed over time and the factors that have influenced these changes.

Living Planet, the Web of Life on Earth

This book explores the different species on Earth, how they interact with each other and how they are adapted to their environment.

When the Rivers Run
Dry

This book looks at the use of rivers around the world, the likely impacts of rivers running dry and where in the world rivers are running dry before they reach the ocean.

Key Stage 5

Title	What can I expect from this text?	Front Cover
Prisoners of Geography	This book focuses on Human Geography and the influence Geography has had in determining historical and political changes over time. It also considers how natural factors have driven changes and decisions over time.

The Power of Geography	This sequel to 'Prisoners of Geography' shows how many nation's choices are limited by geographical features such as mountains, rivers and seas. This book considers the likely changes in global politics and power into the future.
Atmosphere of Hope	An investigation into the current issues around climate and suggested solutions being developed around the world.
An Inconvenient Truth

Factfulness

