

ETONE BOOK BULLETIN

September 2023

Welcome to the first issue of our monthly 'Etone Book Bulletin', where you can find out book suggestions, book of the month, genre of the month, what staff are reading, events on in Birmingham about our most favourite classics, all designed to expand and influence your personal reading! If you would like to take part in our book bulletin and offer any suggestions next term, feel free to email,

Book of The Month!

A dream wedding off the windswept Irish coast becomes a living nightmare for its trapped and terrified guests, in the latest nerve-jangling thriller from the author of The Hunting Party.

Some New Books out this Term!

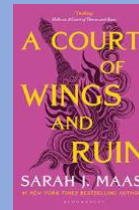

What are Staff Reading this Term?

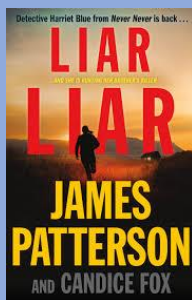

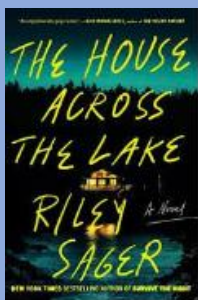

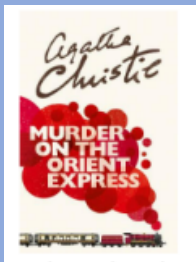

Miss Green

Mrs Logan

Miss Darling

Genre of the Month! CRIME

Events on this Term!

BIRMINGHAM LITERATURE FESTIVAL

5TH-8TH OCTOBER 2023.

BLF are delighted that the Birmingham REP theatre will be playing host to most of the events once again, as well as The Exchange on Centenary Square, and the Roundhouse, run by the National Trust in Birmingham. We'll also be running a number of walking events around the city.

Ahead of all the events going on sale, BLF are proud and excited to announce a special one-off event for schools with Sir Lenny Henry, which is on sale now.

