Dear Parent/Carer

Our personal development curriculum at Etone College meets all statutory guidance and prepares pupils for adult life. This includes Relationships and Sex Education, Health Education, Citizenship, Careers and PSHE. Our RSHE policy is available for parents and carers to read on our website:

We also have a dedicated personal development page where you can find out more information about our personal development curriculum. An important part of our curriculum is enhancing our provision with expert external speakers – we have included an overview for you and will write home to inform you when pupils are receiving assemblies or workshops about sensitive issues.

It is important to us at Etone College that we take account of our local and school context and we adapt our curriculum as required to respond to any relevant issues. It is also important that we take account of pupil and parent views and pupil voice is a regular part of the work that we do. In order to consult with parents and carers, we will be sending out a link to a Microsoft Forms next week for you to complete with any comments on how we meet the statutory requirements for RSHE. Also, you are welcome to contact us throughout the year via postbox@etonecollege.co.uk.

As well as providing information about our personal development curriculum, we also regularly post good news stories to show the activities, workshops and charity events that pupils are involved with. There is more information about the charities we support and the money that we have raised on our website – insert link. As always, we are very grateful for all that are pupils, parents, carers and local community do to support these active citizenship events.

Yours faithfully

Mr I Smith
