Carding Mill Trip 1st October 2024

As part of the GCSE Geography course pupils are required to complete a fieldwork investigation which is based on an investigation carried out on a field trip, additionally 'Rivers' is one of the topics studied for the GCSE specification meaning it will also support their work in lessons. The visit will focus on the physical features and processes involved in the formation of rivers. Throughout the day pupils will carry out a range of surveys and data collection techniques which will be used in their exam.

As this trip forms the basis of the fieldwork investigation element of the course for the unit 3 exam it is essential all pupils studying Geography attend. The cost of the trip will be covered by the school as it is a requirement of the course.

Trip details;

- Tuesday 1st October 24th January 2024
- Transport to and from Carding Mill Valley is by coach
- Pupils must meet in the Café at 8.30am
- Return to Etone at approx. 4pm
- Pupils must bring a packed lunch as there is nowhere to purchase food, please indicate on the MS form below if you require a free school meal
- Pupils must wear sensible walking shoes as the terrain is uneven and the day will involve hill walking
