

What are the six Etone Learner Values?

A series of seven stacked green rectangular boxes of varying widths, intended for students to write their answers to the question above.

ETONE VALUES

We have a set of school values around the edge of the Etone Learner which appear in every assembly. These are our Etone values which we would like you to demonstrate each and every day.

Every half term we will have a focus and form tutors will reward a member of their form for displaying the value. They will receive a certificate and 5 House Points.

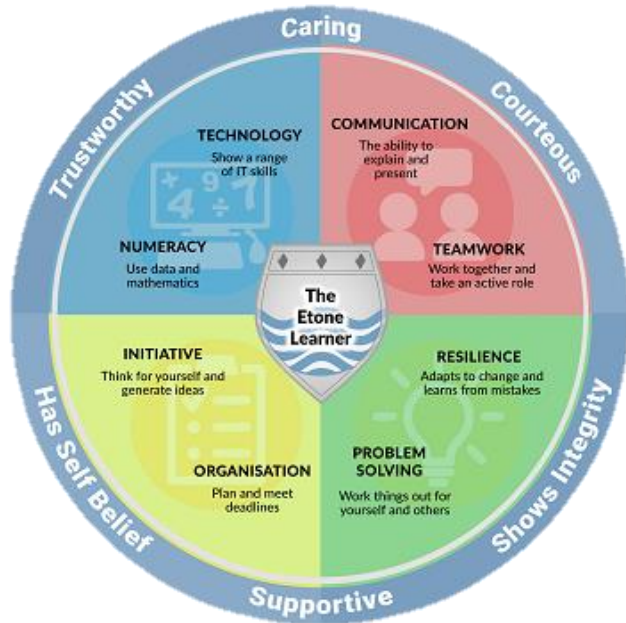

This half term the certificates are for CARING

Pupils nominated will be entered into a prize drawer by their Head of House at the end of the half term.

Your tutor/House Office will award a member of your form group 5 House Points and a certificate each week. This will be for demonstrating the Etone value for that half term.

Every pupil who has had a certificate will be entered into a Prize Draw for their House and the chance to win a gift voucher or prize

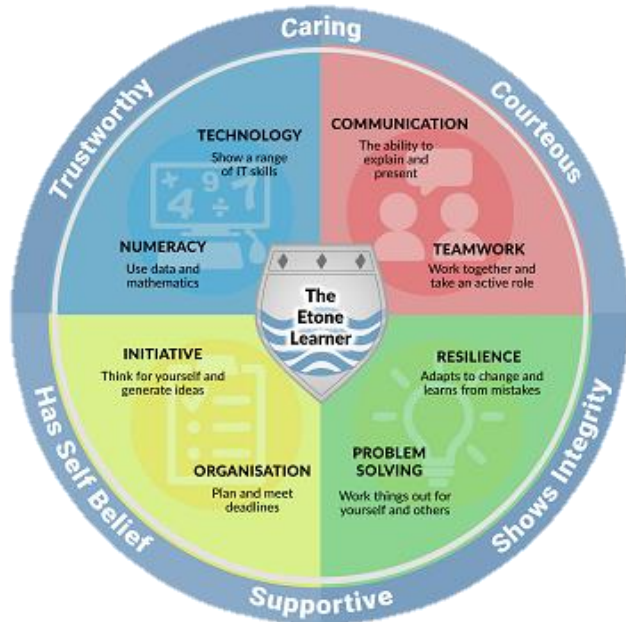

Caring

This is our Etone Value for this half term.

Let's take a look at what it means and how we can show it.

ETONE VALUES

Caring – what it means

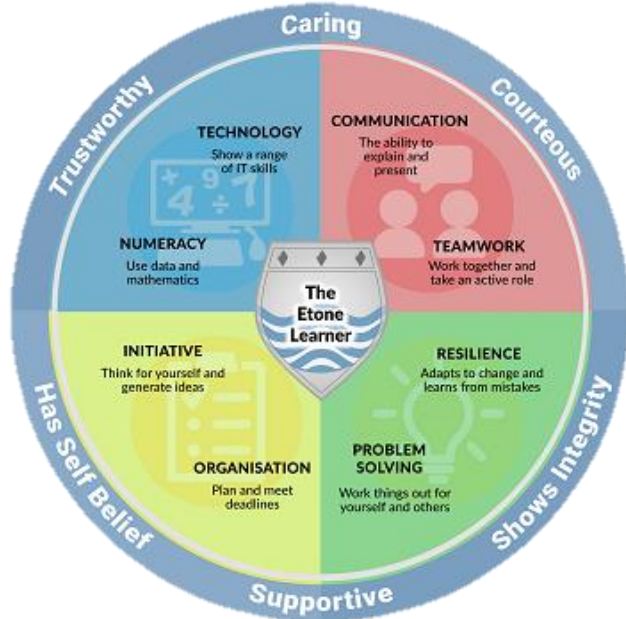

Showing concern for other people's feelings, needs, and wellbeing, and taking actions that help or support them.

Caring can be shown through kindness, empathy, respect, and helpful behaviour.

Caring is noticing when someone needs help—and choosing to do something about it.

ETONE VALUES

Caring – how I can show it

1. Caring for other pupils

Sitting with someone who is alone at lunch so they don't feel left out.
Helping a classmate who is struggling with their work.
Including others in games during break time.
Checking on a friend who looks upset or worried.

2. Caring for staff and the school community

Saying “thank you” to teachers and other members of College staff.
Listening respectfully in class.

3. Caring for the school environment

Picking up litter, even if it isn't yours.
Looking after classroom equipment and not damaging school property.
Leaving shared spaces tidy for the next group.

4. Caring for yourself

Caring isn't only about others—it's also about you:
Asking for help when you're struggling.
Being kind to yourself when you make mistakes

Can you think of any others?
