Dear Parent/Carer,

Year 12 and 13 Understanding Student Finance – Tuesday 7th October from 5-6pm

I am delighted to invite you to a session on ‘Understanding Student Finance and how your child can afford to go University’ on Tuesday 7th October 5-6pm at Etone College Sixth Form. Please arrive at sixth form reception from 4:45pm.

Parking can be found in the main school car park, next to the sports hall. You will then need to walk up the main road to the sixth form building to access front reception.

This session will be delivered by Ahmar Ehsan. Ahmar has been working at the Student Loans Company since December 2016 as part of the wider Funding Information Services Team as the Regional Account Manager for the Midlands & supporting wider regions in England.

The session will provide detailed information for parents and carers on the facts about Student Finance, from applying to paying and will cover key points on repayment, bursaries and scholarships.

If you are interested in attending the session, please complete the Microsoft forms using the link or QR code below so we have an accurate number of attendees.
